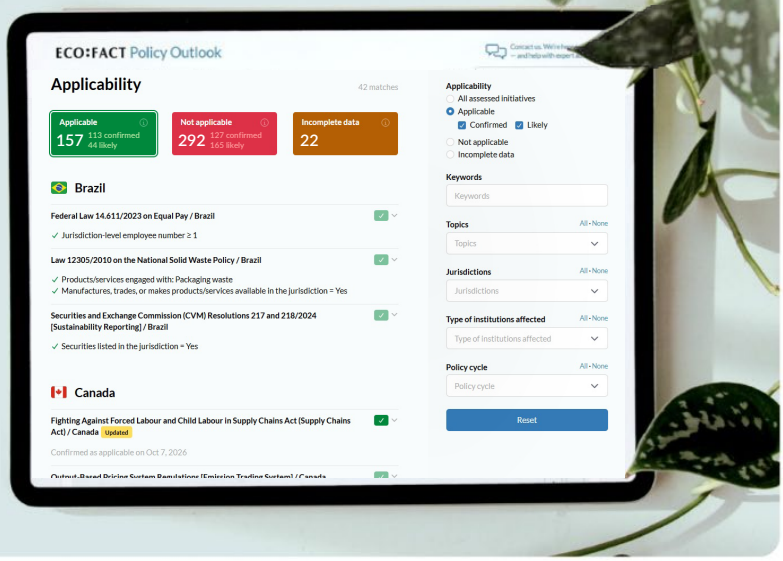
Applicability Tracker



Stop reading what doesn't apply to you

The Applicability Tracker automatically identifies which mandatory regulations in Policy Outlook are likely to apply to your organization, based on information you choose to provide.

Go beyond monitoring.

Know precisely which regulations apply to your organization, keep that picture current, and stay in control of it.

Save time scoping

Automate the screening of hundreds of developments added to Policy Outlook every year. Eliminate up to 300 hours of time-consuming manual checks annually.

Get alerts when applicability changes

Know when new rules or amendments to existing ones change which regulations are likely to apply or might no longer apply.

Know when growth puts you in scope

See when rising headcount, turnover, assets, or new business sectors/products could bring regulations into play.

Focus on what counts

Cut through regulatory noise, so your team can concentrate on anticipating, understanding, and fulfilling obligations.
